BOARD COMMUNICATION                                           Meeting Date: February 10, 2016
TO: Board of Port Commissioners
FROM: Oscar Peña, General Manager and Jennifer Talt-Lundin, Marketing Manager
SUBJECT: Overview of Ventura Port District Marketing Plan

Introduction
The Ventura Harbor is one of the key tourist destinations in the City of Ventura. It offers a variety of recreational activities on land and water; this includes hotels, a variety of retail, art galleries, fish markets and waterfront restaurants that offer fresh seafood, casual and sit-down culinary cuisines for breakfast, lunch, dinner, happy hours, including a comedy club.

Additional activities include boat rentals, harbor cruises, sailing, dive boat and fishing charters, trips to the Channel Islands National Park, the “American Galapagos” and Channel Islands Visitor Center. The Visitor Center features a bookstore, gift items, live tidal pool with daily talks, viewing towers and exhibits featuring the unique character of each park island. Visitor can also enjoy a 25 minute movie entitled, “Treasure in the Sea”, narrated by Kevin Costner. Island Packers, the official concessionaire to the Channel Islands also offers whale watching charters, wildlife cruises and wine/dinner cruises within the harbor. This is the short list of activities to enjoy in the harbor.

There are many attractions to this working commercial fishing and recreational harbor. The Port District has the privilege of marketing this community asset. Our marketing team is led by Jennifer Talt-Lundin, Marketing Manager who has over 20 years of experience in tourism, marketing, public relations, advertising and event production working for Visit Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara, Oxnard and Santa Paula Downtown Districts, major festivals, broadcast, non-profits and attractions. Lauren Yuncker, the District’s Marketing & Event Coordinator earned her B.A. in Art with an emphasis in Advertising and Public Relations from Chapman University, graduating cum laude. Susan Bogue, our part-time New Revenue Coordinator brings a unique combination of sales, marketing and entrepreneurial expertise to our District Marketing team. Maria Schonder is the District’s part-time social media guru.

We are fortunate to have partners throughout the harbor that make this marketing effort fun and exciting. It is through the success of each business operator in the harbor that the District generates approximately 87% of its revenues. The Port District through its real estate transactions collects a minimum rent and a percentage of each tenant’s gross sales. This includes marinas, boatyards, fuel docks, commercial fishing, yacht clubs, the mobile home park and other business enterprises throughout the harbor. The other 13% comes from a small percentage of property taxes (See Chart #1).
Based upon an Economic Impact Report prepared by the California Economic Forecast located in Santa Barbara, in July 2012 the business activity at the Ventura Harbor had a total economic impact of $246 million. Of this total, $86 million remained in Ventura County. The remaining $162 was spread across California and U.S. Economies. Additionally, since 2005, Ventura Harbor businesses have performed significantly better than the broader Ventura County economy. This is especially true of the commercial fishing operations. This report can be viewed on the Ventura Port District website at www.venturaharbor.com.

Visitor Serving Uses

In this report visitor serving uses is best characterized as the hotels, restaurants, retailers and boat charters doing business in the harbor. The largest concentration of these uses are in the Ventura Harbor Village which is owned and operated by the Port District. The Ventura Harbor Village generates 45% of the District’s total revenue as illustrated above. The chart below illustrates the sales generated by the restaurants, retailers and boat charters over the last five (5) years.
The Marketing Budget
Attachment #1 outlines the marketing budget for the 2015-16FY and the previous five year periods. The marketing revenue category reflects $157,000 in total marketing revenue. One of Susan Bogue’s primary objectives is coordinating with the public and non-profit organizations that need permits for weddings on the beach or large organizations that want to utilize the harbor for fund raising events. Jennifer and Lauren work together for booth/vendor income during larger special events and to secure sponsorships and co-op advertising for events like the Parade of Lights and the Pirate Festival. The total marketing personnel expenses for the 2015-16FY ($212,000) is 4.72% less than the 2014-15FY budget. Additionally, there was a slight reduction of 2% in the total marketing (other) expenses for the year 2015-16FY. The total marketing expenses for projected 2015-16FY are budgeted at $503,500.

The larger non-payroll marketing expenses are identified below:

These Harbor Marketing Expenses represent 93.69% of the total non-payroll expenses.

Please note that the $24,000 annual contribution to the Harbor/Downtown Trolley is currently a separate line item on the District’s budget. If the Board elects to move this item to the marketing budget section we will do so in the next budget cycle. This expenditure is paid by the Port District and is not offset in any way. The advertising on the trolley is reflected in the marketing budget.

In an effort to establish and monitor our marketing expenses we utilize an approach developed by the Small Business Administration that recommends spending 2-3 percent of revenues for marketing and advertising. We use historical data on the visitor serving revenues generated at Harbor Village which includes restaurant, retail and charters. Using this method and the total revenue of $23 million, the marketing expense ($503,500) as a percentage of total revenue is 2.19%. These guidelines help us stay within a 2-3 percent range as we develop our budgets. If we utilize the adjusted marketing expenses of $346,500 the marketing expense as a percentage of total revenue is 1.51%. Staff believes this is a conservative standard for the District.

Since the District is the Landlord of the Village we utilize our tenant’s sales as part of the equation in determining the marketing budget. The current rental structure which includes a percentage of gross sales makes the District a true partner with tenants in the harbor. The better they perform the higher the revenue for both the tenant and the landlord.

The hotels in the harbor were excluded from this calculation. The Four Points Sheraton and the Holiday Inn Express generate in excess of $6 million in room revenues. These hotels spend approximately 10% of this figure toward sales and marketing. We are satisfied with this operator’s willingness to promote these properties to achieve higher occupancy levels. As with other tenants in the harbor the District receives a percentage of tenant’s gross sales.

As the second largest visitor serving property in the harbor we wanted to illustrate the total sales for the Four Points Sheraton and Holiday Inn Express over the last five years. This includes room revenues, food, beverages and parking. The income from this property is included as part of the ground lease income illustrated on Chart #1.

Chart #3 – Visitor Serving Sales Generated by Hotels

The other Master Lessees in the harbor are responsible for marketing their own businesses at their expense. Unfortunately, the Channel Islands National Park does not have dedicated advertising or promotional fund specific to the Channel Islands National Park; as a result, the District’s marketing department includes information about the National Park and Visitor Center in regional and local promotional efforts including our two websites. This has also been very beneficial to the National Park Service and Island Packers as the concessionaire to the Channel Islands. Island Packers is a key marketing partner with the District. Island Packers and our Marketing team participate in several of the tour & travel shows to promote the Channel Islands and almost year-round whale watching.

Developing a successful marketing plan to increase visitation and revenues is one of the primary goals of the Marketing Manager. Below are some marketing strategies that will be discussed with the Board.

- Destination Marketing
Destination marketing enhances the overall appeal and awareness of sense of place. Over the past several years, destinations must redefine their role from one that focuses on relaying information only to one that develops credible engagements with the customers. In such a transparent market today, destinations must work hard to deliver outstanding experiences to customers and build lasting relationships. Destinations have begun to shift from focusing from only listing the hotels, restaurants, attractions, and retail offered to be successful in a competitive marketplace. Destinations must now also engage on an emotional and experiential level to tell a story to encourage visitation. Ventura Harbor Marketing utilizes social media as an important tool to reflect the overall destination. Ventura Harbor Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest channels currently reflect this balance of destination by showcasing beautiful imagery, as well as the attractions and businesses within. Ventura Harbor’s dedicated hashtag campaigns generate brand awareness and provide a searchable tool to build interest, awareness while consumers use it as a communications tool to connect with Ventura Harbor. Annual festivals are designated as Ventura Harbor signature events, driving attendance and increasing brand recognition. Claiming Ventura Harbor as not a “gateway” but “Home to The Channel Islands National Park & Visitor Center” has been crucial to expanding further recognition as a destination within the State as well as collaborating with Central Coast Tourism efforts of “The Original Road Trip” brand to make Ventura Harbor a stop for visitor traveling in California.
With the re-designed Venturaharbor.com the new format allows for greater opportunity to tell the entire harbor story with a dedicated news section, changeable banners, harbor amenities and links and attention to user information. The “Ventura Harbor Views” newsletter is produced twice annually disseminating updates to the public with 11,000 copies inserted into the Ventura Breeze as well as 2,000 distributed within the Harbor /City vicinity. The Downtown-Harbor Trolley back panel ad outreaches with a message of “Follow Me to Ventura Harbor” to keep the Harbor top of mind to the local community. Public relations and advertising are utilized throughout the year to drive a broader scope of visitation and awareness.

- Attraction Focused Marketing
Attraction focused marketing in Ventura Harbor targets increased business sales, new customers and builds loyalty. Ventura Harbor Village, waterfront dining, Channel Islands National Park, whale watching, harbor cruises, boat rentals, Downtown-Harbor Trolley, dive, sail, and sportfishing are considered popular Ventura Harbor attractions and activities. Drawing in regular visitation with a focus on all things “seaside” the current advertising plays to our strongest asset, differentiating ourselves from the local competition. By focusing on the experience of Shop, Dine, Play, Stay, Explore – the primary function of the attraction marketing is to generate sales. Annual promotional campaigns are created (i.e. Warm Yourself Seaside, Four Fun Ways to Get Wet, Love Local – Shop Local, Seaside Bliss, Do you Remember the First Time You Fell in Love with Ocean?, etc. ) to outreach to locals and visitors with a call to action. The Marketing team also works directly with many Harbor tenants to develop special promotional concepts and creates opportunities to announce new business as part of the annual plan. Venturaharborvillage.com is the primary portal for information and calendar updates for customers to plan their visit - with the Calendar of Events consistently one of the top visited pages on both sites. Advertising, radio, printed materials, boosted social media, E-newsletters, public relations, and events stimulate top of mind awareness in the marketplace to encourage greater participation and attendance translating into increased sales across a wide demographic market. The presentation will review challenges, strengths, opportunities and impacts.

- Regional & Collaborative Marketing
Partnership allows for companies to extend their customer reach and increase value of overall product.
