FACT SHEET VENTURA HARBOR VILLAGE, VENTURA, CALIFORNIA

LOCATION

Situated along the picturesque California Central Coast, endowed with breathtaking views, Ventura County's Ventura Harbor Village is bordered by a scenic boat harbor and three marinas to the east and the Pacific Ocean on the west. Ventura Harbor Village marina is the site of one of the largest squid offloading harbors in North America. Its Marina has more than 1,359 slips, 35 unique shops and dockside restaurants, two waterfront hotels, beaches, green spaces, water sports, and boating and cruising options, all part of an affordable, multigenerational vacation destination. Ventura Harbor Village is located in the City of Ventura, is 25 miles from Santa Barbara, 44 from Malibu, and is 67 miles from Los Angeles International Airport. It is accessible in just minutes from scenic US Highway 1 & 101. Complimentary Village and beach parking.

ANNUAL VISITOR COUNT

The annual visitor count to Ventura Harbor Village is over 100,000.

LAND AREA

Other than the 2.74-acre site owned by the Department of the Interior, National Park Service, the Ventura Port District manages the land within this multiple use harbor, with current property holdings of approximately 152 acres of land and 122 acres of water area. The site was initially developed in the 1960s, and approximately 23 acres of land area is still available for development.

CLIMATE

Ventura Harbor Village enjoys a year-round balmy climate with fresh sea breezes and frequent sunny skies. Average winter temperatures are 43°F (6°C) to 69°F (21°C), while summertime highs often reach and rarely exceed 83°F

THE MARINA

From 6-foot dinghies to 88-foot commercial fishing seiner boats, scores of pleasure boats call Ventura Harbor home. Ventura Harbor Village marina is one of the top off-loading squid harbor on the Pacific Coast and is in the top 10 of offloading fish harbors in the nation. Ventura Harbor Village marina is home to some of the largest fishery companies. Ventura's Marina has two yacht clubs, two boat yards, and numerous boat rental and charter companies. In addition, ever-popular electric boats can be rented, as can kayaks, paddleboats, paddleboards, stand up kayaks and surf bikes. Boating instruction at all levels is readily available, through the Ventura Power Squadron, the City of Ventura, and private companies. Other boats docked at the Ventura Harbor include Dive Boats, 64' Catamarans (concessioner for the Channel Islands), National Park Service Vessels, and two oil recovery vessels.

BEACHES

Sun worshippers can enjoy Ventura Harbor's Harbor Cove Beach locally nicknamed "Mother's Beach," a jetty-protected surf-free lagoon that invites solo sunning or a day with the family. Village restaurants and a scenic bicycle path are located nearby. In the interest of safety, the Ventura Port District has funded summer lifeguards, and for the convenience of those with limited mobility, a wheelchair aisle is available seasonally. Surfer's Knoll Beach is located one eighth-mile (.2 km) south of Harbor Cove Beach. Adjacent Harbor Wetlands Ecological Reserve has a bird sanctuary, wide sandy beaches on the Pacific Ocean, and mountain views in the background.

ANNUAL EVENTS

Ventura Harbor Village is home to some of the most popular annual events in Southern California. They include such favorites such as the Ventura Harbor Pirate Days, Howl-O-Ween Dog Costume Contest, Kids Trick or Treat Ventura Comedy Festival, Winter Wonderland & Holiday Marketplace, and the Parade of Lights Boat Parade and Fireworks. Bursts of brilliant holiday fireworks color the skies over the Harbor's public boat launch ramp; the best views of the Parade can be had from Village restaurants. Visitors return early each year to visit the Tall Ships -- Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain and celebrate all things Mermaid with March is Mermaid Month. During July and August the harbor resounds with Steel Drum Saturdays and Sunday Seaside LIVE, both free outdoor live music as well as Seaside Kids Club for families & Waterfront Wednesdays with specials and offers all day. A Calendar of Events can be found at Venturaharborvillage.com and a weekly Entertainment Calendar is located on Venturaharborvillage.com.

RECREATION ACTIVITIES

Ventura Harbor Boat Rentals offers the largest fleet of pedal boats in Central California –from which passengers often see seals and wildlife in the placid waters of the Harbor. Rent kayaks, stand up paddle boats, pedal boats, and captain your own electric boats to explore the Harbor and the homes along the canals of the Ventura Keys. Harbor seals, sea lions and birds can be spotted throughout the Harbor.

Ventura Jet Ski Rentals is the newest water attraction on the California coast! Once visitors leave the docks in beautiful Ventura Harbor, 30 minutes South of Santa Barbara, they'll head out into the open ocean and cruise the Pacific, often with dolphins or sea lions in tow. This is a truly an exhilarating adventure to knock off of one's bucket list!

YOGAqua LA's premier stand up paddleboard yoga studio gives yogis a reason to jump-start their summer day, with yoga now offered at Harbor Cove Beach adjacent to Ventura Harbor Village. Established in July 2011 by owner and founder, Sarah Tiefenthaler, classes are open to "all levels." Students are taken through a Vinyasa Yoga flow with customized and detailed instruction on stand up paddleboards. The YOGAqua class is 90 minutes, including instruction and peacefully paddle around the harbor with the remaining hour dedicated to yoga on the calm water.

The Ultimate Escape Rooms Ventura Harbor Village's newest addition. What is an escape room? The fun comes in the form of teamwork. The challenge is to use what is in the room in order to solve puzzles. The answers to the puzzles lead you to the code your team needs to unlock the door, allowing you to "escape". The Ultimate Escape Rooms does offer private parties, and team building corporate events. theultimatescaperooms.com

The Village Carousel & Arcade in Ventura Harbor Village offers a fun, family experience that showcases an indoor Carousel, and an arcade with video and ticket redemption games for all ages, including Zoltar to tell your future as featured in the iconic movie "BIG".
